Application and Selection Timeline:

- Please fill this form out electronically, or print and scan, and email to apply@thetriangle.org before 11:59 PM on Friday, October 20th.

- SEND ALL SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS AS A PDF!

Application Process:

1. Submit the following application materials:
 - Application form (attached)
 - Short answers to application questions
 - Supplemental materials (depends on positions, see page 2)
1. If selected, further instructions about meeting times and training will be included in your acceptance email.

Note: if you have any issues or questions, you should contact the Staff Manager as soon as possible at staff@thetriangle.org.

Expectations of The Triangle:

1. Actively contribute to The Triangle each term. Each section will have their own expectations, explained by your editor once accepted. Keep in mind, you are not restricted to what you can participate in based on the section you are assigned to (these activities can be repeated). A few examples of current expectations for members include:
 - a. Writing and submitting an article which is published in The Triangle
 - b. Attending one event as the photographer and taking at least one photo which is used in a Triangle publication
 - c. Copy editing three articles
 - d. Illustrating or helping illustrate one comic or graphic
 - e. Helping with one print distribution cycle
2. Help maintain a professional office environment and improve the newspaper
3. Uphold journalistic standards and report only the truth
4. Abide by the Bylaws set forth in the Triangle constitution

General Body Meetings

The Triangle holds GBMs every Wednesday throughout the term at 6:30 p.m. at The Triangle Office, located at Suite 050 in the basement of Creese Student Center. As a member, you are expected to attend these meetings. If you have conflicts that do not allow you to make it to these meetings during the term (e.g. class, sports practices, rehearsals) please inform your section editor to be excused.

If you ranked a position that includes a * after it, please complete one of the writing prompts below. Answers to the prompts should be submitted in a separate PDF and be at least one page in length. If applying to multiple * sections, write only one prompt for your top choice.

1. Write a news story about a current event that happened in Philadelphia.
2. Write a review. It could be a movie review, food review, TV review or a review of anything that spark your interest.
3. Write or supply something you have already written that pertains to news, opinion, arts and entertainment or sports.

If you chose or are interested in comics/humor writing, write something funny. It does not have to be an article. It could be a top 10 list, horoscope, an actual comic, or something we haven't thought of.

If you ranked a position that includes a  after it, please provide a few of your own samples of your work as a portfolio. The pieces you choose should represent your abilities as an artist.

- If you ranked Graphic Design, what programs do you know/what experience do you have with graphic design?
- If you ranked Information Technology or Business/Marketing, what experience do you have in this field?

Submission Instructions

Send your completed application, including all supplemental materials, to apply@thetriangle.org. If you filled out this application by hand, scan or photograph it to submit.
